this, a-las! a larm ed my Breast, And robb'd me of my gold-en

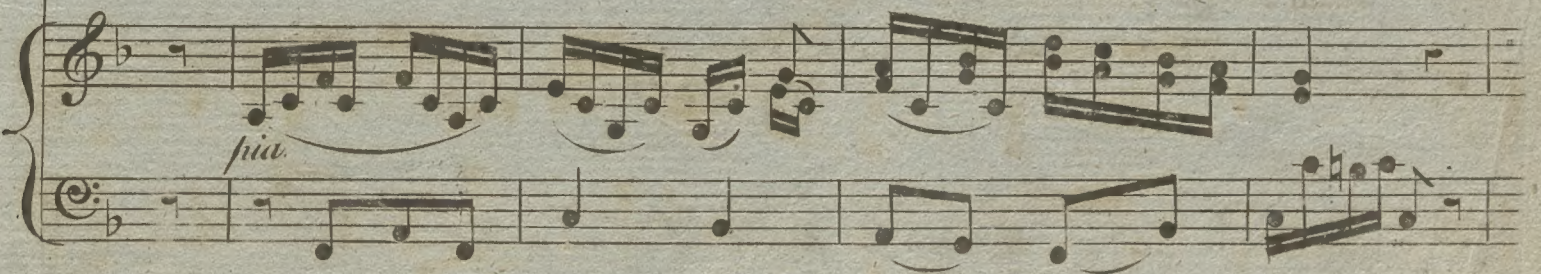

Rest; While ga-zing on thy Charms I hung, My voice died faltering on my Tongue

With subtle Flames my Bosom glows, Quick thro' each vein the poison flows: Dark dim-ning Mist my Eyes surround, My Ears with hollow murmurs sound My Limbs with dew-y chillness freeze, On my whole frame pale tremblings seize And lo-sing co-lor, sense and breath, I fp

seem quite languishing in death.
